Illinois' 4 million acres of forest land

hosts large populations of monster white-tailed deer, along with excellent turkey hunting, duck & goose hunts, pheasant, quail and other game. Outfitters offer affordable guided and semi-guided hunting, while independent programs might interest the sportsman on the hunt for a bargain.

SEASONS

Deer	Begins with an archery season at the first of October. Firearms season starts the Friday before Thanksgiving statewide.
Turkey	Begins with an archery season at the first of October. Fall firearms season is the third week of October; spring is April/May.
Upland/Small Game	Begins the first Saturday in November statewide. Squirrel become legal quarry August 1.
Waterfowl	Set annually by the US Fish & Wildlife Service, fws.gov . Hunting in Illinois requires a license and permit through the Illinois Department of Natural Resources.

ADAMS

Located in the "Golden Triangle", Adams County, with its vast river bottoms bordered with agricultural fields offers hunters the incredible opportunity to harvest a trophy deer during the rut. The bottom ground is also home to an abundant population of turkey and waterfowl. This county produces some of the largest whitetails in the state.
