FLAVOR ADVENTURE with Local Food Ambassadors

Pave your way through five innovative locally-owned eateries in Quincy's historic downtown District. Each Saturday during the summer, progressive chefs prepare signature dishes & drinks, presenting a seasonally artistic brunch/lunch menu with a bonus coffee & cocktail in the mix.

Your adventure to some of the city's most inspiring culinary experiences will be guided by a local food ambassador sharing colorful historic insights. The tour includes five venues, enjoyed in small groups of up to 16.

THE TAPROOM / Michele Wilkerson
After starting the first hybrid model farmers market/grocery store meets family kitchen in Quincy, Michele expanded to The Taproom. This inviting cafe bar has an outdoor "Tree House" courtyard tended by local favorite Chef Christopher, a knowledgeable creative in the culinary & cocktail trade, known for mixing impromptu original concoctions.

ELECTRIC FOUNTAIN BREWING / Ryan Christian
Named after his grandparents' surname "Fountain" and family business "Fountain Electric", EFB was passionately founded by Ryan to create a coffee community experience, sourcing the best beans worldwide and roasting them meticulously in small batches. "Mr. C" is currently the Director of Athletic Bands at Culver-Stockton College as well.

KRAZY CAKES CAFE / Brian Lash
The Krazy staff crafts wild and elaborate cakes, cupcakes and pastries along with delicious homemade breakfasts and health-oriented lunches, all of which can be enjoyed al fresco on the colorful outdoor deck. Brian's rave-review salads are a must. Gluten-free, vegan, and dairy-free options.

THYME SQUARE BAKERY & CAFE / Cory & Erica Shupe
The Shupes originated the farm-to-table dining concept in the Quincy community and fully embrace the house-made approach by butchering, curing and smoking all the local meat served. Artisanal bread is made from scratch every morning. Chef Shupe has been recognized for his culinary skills in Sauce Magazine and the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

QUINCY BREWING COMPANY / Tieraney & Josh Craig
Tieraney's love for all things historic downtown + Josh's passion for exceptional craft beer culminated in the full renovation of the three storefronts housing QBCo. Head Brewer Jim's 25-year passion for brewing began at home, perfecting his 10-gallon system crafting ales, lagers, IPAs, sours, gosés and exotics using chocolates, fruits and coffees. {non-alcoholic drinks avail}
