

cultivate art, music, museums

QUICK ITINERARY: QUIRKY QUINCY

- 1 >villa kathrine castle built in 1900 for eccentric millionaire, george and his 200lb pooch, bingo >morning mural find + dine driving tour (24 eclectic city murals, continuous munching along the way:)
- 2 >breakfast at the scoreboard in calftown (potato skins, blt & bloody [virgin if you like] mary-- yes, it's a bar)
- 3 >snakeman snake shop (rare snake breeder & reptile shop hidden in german historic district)
- 4 >picnic lunch from winking's market + handfuls of penny candy & ice cold pop; tell Frank we sent you
- 5 >take it to quinsippi (unique island park on the quincy bay; shelter house & small beach)
- 6 >ice scream (universally approved interstellar hub for fun; try a zombieland or a vortex-- sizes come in jawa, jedi & jabba; stay the night upstairs at pat's hard rock sky palace airbnb) >afternoon off the record driving tour (13 brow-raising former residents of intrigue --end at woodland cemetery)
- 7 >pbr hard coffee with donuts at the dock (after learning our city founder had his father's head buried in a hat box, you'll need a coffee with a shot of whiskey [garnished with donuts]; stay for live music with a river view)

Above : Mural #21 on the Mural Find + Dine Tour

> "Rattenfanger" means Rat Catcher. The fairytale follows the Bubonic plague. The rat catcher was beckoned to play his flute to chase the rats out of town, as it was said that they carried the disease.

1 532 GARDNER EXPY 217.224.3688

2 234 S 8TH 217.223.8511

3 817 KENTUCKY 217.617.7864

4 416 S 4TH 217.223.4764

5 1100 QUINSHIPPI ISLAND RD 217.223.7703

6 618 MAINE 217.316.6491

7 1021 BONANSINGA DR 217.223.9748