AN AMERICAN DAY TOUR QUINCY IL

SeeQuincy > 800.978.4748 | info@seequincy.com

1

Underbrink's Bakery 10am $5/person
1627 College | 217.222.1831

Begin the day with the sweet smells and delights of Quincy's own Underbrink's Bakery, since 1929. Known for their individual iced angel food cakes, danishes and pies. Enjoy a sweet tray wrapped to go along with a behind-the-scenes kitchen walk-through tour for groups.

2

City Driving Tour 10:30am $2/person
217.214.3700 | SeeQuincy.com

Meet local tour guide, Ron Frillman to begin the City Step-On Guided Tour. Your entertaining host will regale intriguing stories of former famous and infamous residents, as well as note distinctive Quincy architectural and historical highlights along the way.

3

Lunch at the iconic Maid-Rite 11:30am $9/person (ave)
507 N 12th | 217.222.9767

Home of the "loose-meat" sandwich. This family-style diner has served Quincy since 1928. Visited by Food Network's Alton Brown in 2007. Table service provided, but no tipping allowed 😊.

4

Peruse the Maine Street Mile 1pm free

Cruise the most notable section of the city, from 24th to 5th & Maine. Complete with ornate mansions, museums, Abe Lincoln history and more. Washington Park (shown left) was the site of the sixth Lincoln-Douglas Debate of 1858.

6

9/11 Tower Memorial 1:15pm free
730 Maine | 217.228.4500

Conclude the Maine Street Mile at Quincy's City Hall to observe a World Trade Center Artifact. The 7,000-lb section and antenna of World Trade Center Tower One when it was attacked on 9/11/2001, now stands in the city where the antenna was designed and manufactured by Harris Corporation.

7

Tour the All Wars Museum 1:45pm free
1707 N 12th | 217.222.8641

Located on the grounds of one of our nation's largest and oldest Veterans Homes, dedicated in 1886. Today, the museum shares over 10,000 military artifacts and the history of American war conflicts. Thank a veteran while on-site, as former service members now reside at the home. Also on the grounds is the deer and buffalo park and memorial garden.

8

1930s Ag Museum 3pm free
1435 Boy Scout Rd | 217.440.3036

Learn from the owner of this private collection the beginnings of farming in our country. See and touch the equipment, and appreciate the evolution of the plow and how many people the Midwestern farmer can now feed.
