

FLAVOR TOURS

Summer eats & sips walking tours
Designed for the Curious Foodie

Five Venues / Five Chefs
Historic Downtown Quincy

Do you have a passion for food & history? Flavor Tours are the perfect marriage of the two in a community overflowing with culinary & cultural wonders.

Pave your way to five eateries in Quincy's downtown District, alongside your personal Food Ambassador, sharing colorful insights of the city's past.

Local chefs create seasonal brunch/lunch menus including housemade coffee, cocktails and beer. Your adventure includes a Farmers Market stroll in Washington Park and a stop at a boutique shop.

FLAVOR TOURS OF QUINCY

> 5 CHEFS/5 VENUES

1

ELECTRIC FOUNTAIN BREWING / Ryan Christian
Named after his grandparents' surname "Fountain" and family business "Fountain Electric", EFB was passionately founded by Ryan to create a coffee community experience, sourcing the best beans worldwide and roasting them meticulously in small batches.

625 Maine / 217. 214.2739 / efbcoffee.com

2

KRAZY CAKES CAFE / Brian Lash

The Krazy staff crafts wild and elaborate cakes, cupcakes and pastries along with homemade breakfasts and health-oriented lunches, all of which may be enjoyed al fresco on the colorful outdoor deck. Brian's rave-review salads are a must. Gluten-free, vegan, and dairy-free options.

512 Hampshire / 217. 222.2253 / krazycakescafe.com

3

ON THE RAIL SPORTS BAR & GRILL / Scott Edlin

With a terrific view of downtown Quincy from the patio, On the Rail offers classic bar food with a twist, like their hoison burger with siracha cucumber. The thin housemade pizza is perfect paired with a handcrafted cocktail.

129 S 4TH / 217.214.7245

4

TIRAMISU / Ilija Cucuk

Serving Quincy for over 20 years, Tiramisu offers fine authentic Italian cuisine and an extensive wine list. Enjoy their new location in a recently renovated downtown building, anchoring Washington Park. Delectable, richly layered house made Tiramisu will send you to heaven.
