

Villa Kathrine 9:30-10am $3/person
532 Gardner Expressway
217.224.3688 (Guided tour or choose to self-guide individually)
Mediterranean castle overlooking the Mississippi, built in 1900 for for world traveler George Metz. Now a touring museum, Quincy's Tourist Information Center & SeeQuincy offices.

1930s Ag Museum free
1435 Boyscout Rd | 217.430.3036 | 217.430.9250 | 217.430.9249
Private collection of over 45 John Deere implements plus vintage items typical of a 1930s farmstead. Former educator and owner, Don, is onsite to provide his knowledge and an educational video upon request.

Underbrink's Bakery 10:15-11:15am $5/person
1627 College | 217.222.1831
Behind-the-scenes tour of an authentic and beloved 1929 working German bakery. Mouth-watering sweet tray included.
(stops 2 & 3 are next to each other: groups may split and tour separately for 30 min each)

St. Francis Catholic Church 10:15-11:15am free
1721 College | 217.222.2898
Built in 1884 in the Gothic Revival style. Stunning interior murals and extensive white marble adorn the exquisite sanctuary. Guided tours available through the church staff.

Park & Shop Stop 11:30am-12:30pm free
Park at historic Washington Park on 4th Street near the "Focus" mural; peruse the park or shop the surrounding boutiques. Washington Park was the site the sixth Lincoln-Douglas Debate of 1858. Today, the park is enlivened during the summer months with free Blues in the District concerts, festivals and Saturday Farmers Market.

more >>>

5

6

7

8

9

Lunch Italiano or Diner-style 12:30-1:30pm

Tiramisu | 131 N 4th | 217.222.9560 | tiramisuquincy.com
Roberto has been serving the Quincy community authentic Italian cuisine for over two decades. Enjoy lunch at Tiramisu's new location, in the beautifully renovated former "Park Hotel."

Maid-Rite Sandwich Shop | 507 N 12th | 217.222.9767
Home of the "loose-meat" sandwich, a Quincy icon of which Food Network's Alton Brown approved. Famous for tasty sandwiches, crinkle cut fries, and homemade pies & shakes. Served diner style... but no tipping allowed!

City Driving Tour 1:30-2:30pm $5/person
800.978.4748 | SeeQuincy.com

Abundant Architecture + Off the Record
Architecture, history & intrigue. See incredible structures and learn of famous & infamous former residents. Opt for our favorite step-on guide, Ron, who's sure to entertain with colorful stories. Purportedly Al Capone stayed at the Monckton Mansion, shown left (group tours avail).

Private Home Tours 2:30-4pm $5/person per home
800.978.4748 | SeeQuincy.com

Custom tours designed just for your group. Seventeen privately owned residences in Quincy's exclusive East End Historic District are offered. Select three from our gallery to tour. The homes are arranged in neighborhood groupings for easy walkability.

Quincy Museum 4-5pm $5/person

1601 Maine | 217.224.7669 | thequincymuseum.org
Millionaire Mansion on Maine comprised of 20,000 square feet, 14-karat gold woodwork on the first floor and rotating exhibits on the second & third floors.

The Patio Restaurant & Lounge 5:15pm

401 Jersey | 217.222.1281 | quincypatio.com
Swanky evening dining at its best. Originally opened in 1959, The Patio has been reimagined into an elegant & inviting space with a modern take on American classic bistro cuisine. The classy ending to a perfect day: an iconic Grasshopper cocktail.